Angela Payne

Angela, an experienced professional in the Human Capital sector, has dedicated her 20+ year career to her deep interest in people. Her remarkable ability to create strong and lasting connections is recognized – it is a superpower that has helped her build and expand successful teams and established her as a strategic mentor to many leaders.

As co-founder of LeedHR, Angela designs and implements client programs with the goal of nurturing outstanding leaders. Her previous role as the National Board President of Lean In Canada empowered her to set the vision, develop the strategy and enable the growth for their nationwide chapters and circles initiatives.

Angela's expertise lies in cultivating and maintaining thriving workplaces. Drawing from her well-rounded business and management background, she has skillfully brought together talented, engaged, and diverse teams. While serving as the SVP and GM of Monster Canada, Angela played a key role in reshaping the company's operational processes and culture, making a significant impact on the company's financial results. Her positive influence extended across continents, where she formally coached and mentored women in leadership positions.

In her prior role as Country Manager at Lee Hecht Harrison, Angela successfully merged LHH and Knightsbridge, creating Canada's largest career transition enterprise. She modernized the professional career transition process, improving its efficiency and service quality.

Angela's educational background complements her contributions to industry events, where she shares insights on recruitment, leadership, and promoting women in business.
